Narrative begins on the following page.

On February 13th, 2022 at approximately 1445 Hours, I contacted JanPhilip Koesters at [REDACTED] and conducted an interview over the phone. Koesters had contacted the Lexington Police Department after seeing the story on the news last night.

Koesters stated that as he was driving on Hancock St towards the rotary, he observed a Lexington Police Officer park at the end of the street that would take you to the Diamond School. He stated that he observed the Officer talking on his cell phone as he crossed the street, and believes the Officer started speaking with someone in a second story window at the 98 Hancock St address. Koesters stated this was the extent of what he saw and left the area after the Officer had crossed the street.
