

Sleep Safe Tonight

This Book Belongs To:

---

Congratulations on the birth of your new brother!

This is a very exciting time for you and your family. The joy and excitement of adding a new baby to your family brings along with it important responsibilities for you as a big sibling.

You will play an important role in helping your parents care for the new baby. This book is all about safety during sleep time, and will teach you about ways to help your parents protect your baby brother when he goes to sleep. Congratulations again on becoming a big sibling, and thank you for being a helper during this important time!

Marian T. Ryan
District Attorney
Middlesex County

My baby brother Ted, so safe and warm, sleeps in this crib, no harm.

No blankets, no toys,
no bumpers, no pillows.

In Ted's nursery all toys away:
better safe than sorry.

Just him on a sheet,
and everything's complete.

Mommy in her bed,
seperate from baby Ted.

Ted's cries and screams
will turn into sweet dreams.

Winter cold and chilly
don't be silly.

Don't over heat Ted;
keep him safe in bed.

Leave him on his back,
or safe sleep will lack.

In his OWN crib is cousin Ned;
it's important not to co-bed.

In the middle of the night,
Ted's settled in all right.

The End

A Community Partnership Sponsored by Middlesex District Attorney
Marian T. Ryan

Written and Illustrated by Student Sarah Gorski
Greater Lowell Technical High School